

The Jonathan Cooke Glass Painting Masterclass at Swansea College of Art UWTSD.

September 25th - 28th 2026 £500.00

The Architectural Glass Centre at Swansea College of Art is pleased to announce a new session of glass painting masterclasses by Jonathan Cooke, on glass painting, and the use of stains and enamels, in a comprehensive four-day course.

Group teaching is complemented by attention to each participant's individual project. These specialist masterclasses will be limited to nine participants and have been proved over 30 years as suitable both as an introduction to glass painting and for more experienced glass painters looking to extend their repertoire.

What s included:

- Offer of a pre-course discussion with Jonathan by email or phone on any aspect of the course or planned project to ensure best use of teaching time.
- All tuition, access to tools and materials, use of kilns and technical support.
- The course focuses on technique and troubleshooting, and there will be the opportunity to complete a small piece (approximately A5).
- Jonathan's Time and Temperature 2nd edition (2025) will be on offer at a discounted price of £15
- Oster Ancient Walpole, Winchester and Orange Stains will be available at a special promotional price, as Jonathan is Oster's UK distributor.
